AN ACT

To repeal section 162.081, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to school accreditation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 162.081, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 162.081, to read as follows:

162.081. 1. Whenever any school district in this state fails or refuses in any school year to provide for the minimum school term required by section 163.021 or is classified unaccredited [for two successive school years] by the state board of education, its corporate organization shall lapse on a date determined by the state board of education. The state board of education, in setting the date for lapse, may establish the conditions under which the existing school district board shall continue to govern, or determine an alternative governing structure for the district. [The corporate organization of any school district that is classified as unaccredited shall lapse on June thirtieth of the second full school year of such unaccredited classification after the school year during which the unaccredited classification is initially assigned. The territory theretofore embraced within any district that lapses pursuant to this section or any portion thereof may be attached to any district for school purposes by the state board of education; but no school district, except a district classified as unaccredited pursuant to section 163.023 and section 160.538 shall lapse where provision is lawfully made for the attendance of the pupils of the district at another school district that is classified as provisionally accredited or accredited by the state board of education.]

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

16 2. Prior to or at the time any school district in this state shall lapse, [but after the school
17 district has been classified as unaccredited,] the department of elementary and secondary

24 or an urban school district containing most or all of a city with a population greater than three 25 hundred fifty thousand inhabitants and in any other school district if the local board of education
26 does not anticipate a return to accredited status, the state board of education may appoint a 27 special administrative board to supervise the financial operations, maintain and preserve the 28 financial assets or, if warranted, continue operation of the educational programs within the 29 district or what provisions might otherwise be made in the best interest of the education of the 30 children of the district. The special administrative board shall consist of two persons who are 31 residents of the school district, who shall serve without compensation, and a professional

53 purposes; or

54 ~~[(3)]~~ (4) Establish one or more school districts within the territory of the lapsed district, 55 with a governance structure [consistent with the laws applicable to districts of a similar size]
56 specified by the state board of education, with the option of permitting a district to remain 57 intact for the purposes of assessing, collecting, and distributing property taxes, to be distributed 58 equitably on a weighted average daily attendance basis, but to be divided for operational 59 purposes, which shall take effect sixty days after the adjournment of the regular session of the 60 general assembly next following the state board's decision unless a statute or concurrent
61 resolution is enacted to nullify the state board's decision prior to such effective date. [The special 62 administrative board may retain the authority granted to a board of education for the operation
63 of the lapsed school district under the laws of the state in effect at the time of the lapse.]

64 ~~[5.]~~ 4. The authority of the special administrative board shall expire at the end of the 65 third full school year following its appointment, unless extended by the state board of education.
66 If the lapsed district is reassigned, the special administrative board shall provide an accounting 67 of all funds, assets and liabilities of the lapsed district and transfer such funds, assets, and 68 liabilities of the lapsed district as determined by the state board of education.

69 ~~[6.]~~ Upon recommendation of the special administrative board, the state board of 70 education may assign the funds, assets and liabilities of the lapsed district to another district or 71 districts. Upon assignment, all authority of the special administrative board shall transfer to the 72 assigned districts.

73 ~~7.]~~ 5. Neither the special administrative board nor any district or other entity assigned 74 territory, assets or funds from a lapsed district shall be considered a successor entity for the 75 purpose of employment contracts, unemployment compensation payment pursuant to section 76 288.110, or any other purpose.

77 ~~[8.]~~ 6. If additional teachers are needed by a district as a result of increased enrollment

79 employment interview to any permanent teacher of the lapsed or dissolved district upon the 80 request of such permanent teacher.

86 unaccredited. In the case of such a district being declared unaccredited, such plan shall be 87 presented to the voters of the district before the district lapses. In the case of such a district being

88 declared provisionally accredited, such plan may be presented before the close of the current 89 accreditation cycle.

90 (2) The plan may provide that the school district shall remain intact for the purposes of 91 assessing, collecting and distributing taxes for support of the schools, and the governing body
92 of the district shall develop a plan for the distribution of such taxes equitably on a per-pupil basis 93 if the district selects this option.

98 of the provisions of this section to provide an orderly transition to new school districts and 99 achievement of accredited status for such districts.

101 pupils lapses, no school district shall have all or any part of such lapsed school district attached 102 without the approval of the board of the receiving school district.
